

LO: Use organisational features in non-fiction writing (two days)

Heroic Beowulf saves Heorot

Fearless warrior unleashes bravery and determination to save the day!

In the land of the Danes, a great challenge loomed as fearsome monster Grendel plagued King Hrothgar's kingdom. With each passing night, lives were lost and trouble brewed within the mighty hall of Heorot. Warriors found themselves helpless against Grendel's wrath, leaving Hrothgar worried and his people in despair. Hope arrived in the form of a courageous warrior named Beowulf.

Beowulf, renowned for his bravery and strength, traveled from afar to offer his assistance. With determination in his eyes, he vowed to confront Grendel and put an end to the bloodshed. His arrival provided a glimmer of hope to the anguished king and his troubled subjects.

The epic battle unfolded in the darkness of night, within the very heart of Heorot. Beowulf, armed with his unwavering resolve and unmatched combat skills, faced off against the monstrous Grendel. Their clash echoed through the walls as Beowulf fought valiantly, his every move reflecting his cunning and prowess. In a fierce display of strength, Beowulf successfully overpowered Grendel, delivering a fatal blow that ended the creature's reign of terror.

King Hrothgar, relieved and grateful, praised Beowulf for his heroic act. He wasted no time in hosting a grand feast to honor the courageous warrior's triumph. The halls of Heorot were adorned with merriment as the

The image captures Beowulf, a muscular and brave warrior, with a determined look on his face, holding a mighty sword high above his head. Grendel, a fearsome and monstrous creature, is depicted in the background, writhing in pain and defeat.

Beowulf Defeating evil with determination and might

"It is with immense gratitude that we welcome Beowulf, the savior of our kingdom", declared King Hrothgar during the feast. "His bravery and indomitable spirit have preserved our people and restored peace within our realm."

Among the attendees, Beowulf's comrades spoke highly of his exceptional abilities. Wiglaf, a close confidant, stated, "Never have I witnessed such bravery in battle. Beowulf's unwavering courage and unmatched skill have undoubtedly saved us from impending doom."

The triumphant tale of Beowulf's victory over Grendel shall survive for years to come!

WAGOLL	✓ / ●
headline
byline
introduction - 5Ws
main body
source (speech)
captions with photographs

Heroic Beowulf saves Heorot

Fearless warrior unleashes bravery and determination to save the day!

In the land of the Danes, a great challenge loomed as fearsome monster Grendel plagued King Hrothgar's kingdom. With each passing night, lives were lost, and trouble brewed within the mighty hall of Heorot. Warriors found themselves helpless against Grendel's wrath, leaving Hrothgar worried and his people in despair. Hope arrived in the form of a courageous warrior named Beowulf.

Beowulf, renowned for his bravery and strength, travelled from afar to offer his assistance. With determination in his eyes, he vowed to confront Grendel and put an end to the bloodshed. His arrival provided a glimmer of hope to the anguished king and his troubled subjects.

The epic battle unfolded in the darkness of night, within the very heart of Heorot. Beowulf, armed with his unwavering resolve and unmatched combat skills, faced off against the monstrous Grendel. Their clash echoed through the walls as Beowulf fought valiantly, his every move reflecting his cunning and prowess. In a fierce display of strength, Beowulf successfully overpowered Grendel, delivering a fatal blow that ended the creature's reign of terror.

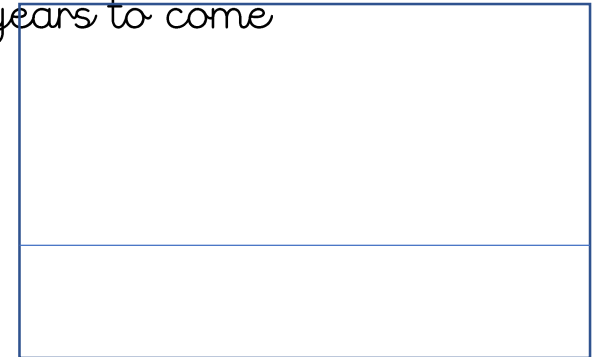

King Hrothgar, relieved and grateful, praised Beowulf for his heroic act. He wasted no time in hosting a grand feast to honour the courageous warrior's triumph.

jubilant king, surrounded by his loyal subjects, celebrated the victory that brought an end to the torment that had befallen their land.

"It is with immense gratitude that we welcome Beowulf, the saviour of our kingdom", declared King Hrothgar during the feast. "His bravery and indomitable spirit have preserved our people and restored peace within our realm."

Among the attendees, Beowulf's comrades spoke highly of his exceptional abilities. Wiglaf, a close confidant stated, "Never have I witnessed such bravery in battle. Beowulf's unwavering courage and unmatched skill have undoubtedly saved us from impending doom."

The triumphant tale of Beowulf's victory over Grendel shall survive for years to come

Plenary

What are you proud of and why?

WAGOLL	✓ / ●
headline
byline
introduction - 5Ws
main body
source (speech)
captions with photographs	